

THE BEAST LIKE UNTO A LEOPARD

Part 3

Give all praises to the Father, יהוה, for giving unto us His only Begotten Son and Servant, יהוה בן יהוה, whom we shall see crowned with Glory and Honor. Let us thank יהוה בן יהוה for sacrificing His life to teach us how to keep the laws of יהוה that we may live eternally. We will be eternally indebted to Him for His mercy, compassion, and love. For this reason, I will praise Thee, O Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, with my whole heart; I will show forth all Thy marvelous works. I will be glad and rejoice in Thee: I will sing praises to Thy name, O Thou Most High. When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at Thy presence. For Thou has maintained my right and my cause; Thou satest in the throne judging right.

But the Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, shall endure for ever; He hath prepared His throne of judgment. And He shall judge the world in righteousness, He shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness. The Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. And they that know Thy name will put their trust in Thee: for Thou, Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, hast not forsaken them that seek Thee. Sing praises to the Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people His doings (Psalm 9:1-4; 7-11).

I will love thee, O Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, my strength. The Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. I will call upon the Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, who is worthy to be praised (Psalm 18:1-3). Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

It brings me great pleasure, joy and honor to welcome you to our holy feast. Welcome to part 3 of The Beast Like Unto A Leopard. In review of our last seminar, part 2, we deciphered the remainder of the Scripture, "...and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority."

When we closely investigated Barack Obama's feet, we realized that they represented the Constitution, particularly the constitutional rights that have to do with the stipulated duration of his appointment to the office of president. We also learned that it would be the decision of the U.S. Congress for Barack Obama to stand as a candidate for office.

Even more, it was revealed that the Pope, who is the overseer and high priest of the Roman Catholic Church, shall agree with the decision of the U.S. Congress that Barack Obama is the person having most of the necessary qualifications; meeting more than any other, the requirements for the position.

When we researched Barack Obama's mouth, we found that it was talking about an opportunity that will arise for him to stay as president to deal with a group of individuals ready for combat with the strength or capacity to wage war and that can increase in extent, numbers, or influence. This situation shall affect not only America's, but the world's security, wealth, and freedom from the act of these groups seeking to dominate or control America and the world.

Furthermore, we discovered that President Barack Obama would get in the way of, prevent, and delay the action of the OFFICIAL PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. We also showed in our study that he shall pass an EXECUTIVE ORDER due to a sudden, urgent, and unexpected occurrence or event that shall require his immediate action. This occurrence or event shall put America in a condition of instability, as in its social, economic, or political affairs that shall lead to a decisive change.

After closely examining the phrase, "...as the mouth of a lion...," we came to understand that the emergency that shall require Barack Obama's action shall be a deception orchestrated by the Pope who is the person of great position and distinction in America and the world. The Pope shall use his supreme power from his position to ensure that Barack Obama stays president to carry on to a further point what former President George W. Bush began.

We then moved onto the fact that the dragon gave him (Barack Obama) his power, and his seat, and great authority. This research clearly revealed that the dragon is the same as the bear and the lion simultaneously. It was explained that the Pope shall attack The Nation of יהוה and those of us who keep the laws of God, יהוה, and have the testimony of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה. He shall make war with us, because we are disclosing revelations from God, יהוה that are in accord with facts, are logically necessary, and follow sound reasoning from established truths. The manner in which he shall attack us and make war with us is through an utterance of false charges or misrepresentations, which is intended to defame and damage our reputation.

For this reason, the Pope has given Barack Obama superiority derived from his status of President of The United States of America. Additionally, The Pope has given Barack Obama all of this power to carry out what former President George W. Bush began, which is to give rise to a One World Religion of Christianity, a World Government through trade, continue to war in the Middle East with the aim of converting its people to Christianity, declare Martial Law in America due to a terrorist attack, institute the mark of the beast, and make war with The Nation of יהוה by slandering the P.E.E.S.S. Foundation.

The research we just recapped has yet to occur; therefore, they are still prophecies. You may be wondering why we said that the election would be interfered with and cancelled; but yet, we saw the election and inauguration take place. We can only see and understand as far as יהוה allows us to. The Comforter, the Holy Ghost, the rational mind, which shows us things to come by the guiding spirit of יהוה בן יהוה, reveals information that we interpret with the divine 10-step study method of יהוה בן יהוה, and then record to be understood and released at His appointed time based on His timetable.

We told you, in our previous seminars, that Barack Obama would get in the way of the election. Today, we will explore how this transpired. Let us turn to our foundation Scripture for this seminar in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5:

And there was given unto him (the beast like unto a leopard: Barack Obama) a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him (Barack Obama) to continue forty and two months.

We have been taught by יהוה בן יהוה, the Master Teacher, that the Scriptures in the holy Bible are not in chronological order, but rather, are out of sequence throughout the Old and New Testaments. For this reason, the situation in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5 where the beast like unto a leopard, Barack Obama, is given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power to continue forty and two months comes before the Constitution is changed for him to run a third term, that we decoded in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 2. Meaning, that the events we will reveal today of verse 5 will take place before the events of verse 2. Let us begin to decode Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5.

And there was given unto him (the beast like unto a leopard: ...

The first word we must understand in this Scripture is the action word, given. From the authority of The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, under reference number 1325, the word given is transliterated as "bestow."

In accordance with Merriam Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2009, on page 116, bestow is defined as "to put to use." In the same source, on page 1378, to use means "to carry out a purpose by means of; manipulate." In The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 968, to put means "to position." And on page 716, means is synonymous to, "way, method, process; actions."

We can deduce, from the veracity of these definitions, what the beast like unto a leopard, Barack Obama, was given. He was given the way, method, process, or actions needed to continue forty and two months. To accomplish this, he positioned a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, in order to carry out his purpose. Furthermore, he placed this mouth speaking great things and blasphemies to manipulate. The question becomes, manipulate what? We must look up the word manipulate from various standpoints.

Manipulate in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 704, means "fix." To fix in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, means "to influence the result of (an election) to one's advantage by trickery." Another definition for fix in The Oxford New Desk Dictionary and Thesaurus, Third Edition, copyright 2009, on page 301, is to "arrange fraudulently." While, to influence in Oxford Concise English Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 727, is "the power arising out of status, contact or wealth." And in the previously mentioned Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, trickery is defined as "deception."

Following this course of reference, we can see the way, method, process, or actions that Barack Obama utilized to be able to continue forty and two months. In order to position a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies to carry out his purpose, he used the power arising from his status, all his contacts, and people with wealth to arrange fraudulently the result of the 2016 Presidential Election to his advantage through deception. Therefore, we must look into how he arranged fraudulently the election.

As referenced in The Oxford New Desk Dictionary and Thesaurus, Third Edition, copyright 2009, on page 40, arrange is to "put into order; classify."

Classify in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, means "to designate (governmental documents, reports, etc.) to be secret or confidential and available only to authorized persons." To designate means to "indicate." While, to indicate is "to express briefly or generally; to direct attention to; show." And lastly fraudulent, the root word of fraudulently, in the aforementioned The Oxford New Desk Dictionary and Thesaurus, on page 320, is equivalent to "fake."

Weighing the integrity of these definitions, we can see how Barack Obama arranged fraudulently the election. He briefly or generally conveyed to the American people that there were governmental documents, reports, etc. that were secret or confidential and available only to authorized persons that needed to be considered. He directed attention to and showed these secret or confidential governmental documents even though these documents were fake.

As we told you earlier, in order to understand more of the manipulation of the 2016 Presidential Election and the deception behind it, we must explore the word manipulate from a different perspective.

Oxford Concise English Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 867, defines manipulate as to "handle or control with dexterity; present (data) so as to mislead." Data in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, is the same as "information." In the same source, information is "news; intelligence; an accusation, under oath, of a criminal offense, not by indictment of a grand jury, but by a public officer, such as a prosecutor."

Through verified research, we have learned that in order to continue forty and two months, Barack Obama had to position a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies of which we will thoroughly explain as we move along in this study. To use this mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, he had to interfere with the 2016 Presidential Election by handling and controlling the election with dexterity. He not only presented news and intelligence to mislead the people, but he also presented an accusation, about a candidate, under oath, of a criminal offense, not by indictment of a grand jury, but by a public officer, such as a prosecutor. Furthermore, he expressed briefly or generally to the American people that there were governmental documents, reports, etc. that were secret or confidential and available only to authorized persons that needed to be considered. He directed attention to and showed these secret or confidential governmental documents even though these documents, reports, etc. were fake.

There was more manipulation done during the election. For this reason we shall look at the word manipulate again from another angle.

In The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 704, manipulate means to "contrive; plot; scheme; tamper; gerrymander." The

Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1988, on page 1342, explains that to tamper is "to meddle, especially for the purpose of damaging." While, to damage in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, is synonymous to "injure." In the same source, to injure means "to weaken or otherwise cause a loss . . . ." The word loss is the same as "a losing." While, lose the root of losing is, "to fail to win." And lastly, gerrymander in the same source is "to divide (a voting area) so as to give one political party a majority in as many districts as possible or weaken the voting strength of an ethnic group, urban population, etc."

We can gather, from these additional sources, as to the manner in which Barack Obama secretly contrived, plotted, and schemed the results of 2016 Presidential Election. With the use of his power arising from his status, all his contacts, and people with wealth he meddled in the election; especially, for the purpose of weakening or otherwise causing one of the candidates to fail to win. This was done by dividing the voting areas so as to give one political party a majority in as many districts as possible or weaken the voting strength of an ethnic group, and urban populations. Let us now further describe what an ethnic group and urban population is.

Ethnic is defined in Thorndike Barnhart High School Dictionary, copyright 1968, on page 339, as "having to do with the various races of people and the characteristics and customs of each.” In the same source, on page 435, group is “a number of persons classed together.”

We can clarify that an ethnic group is a number of persons classed together having to do with the various races of people and the characteristics and customs of each. Let us now understand what an urban population is referring to.

Webster’s New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, defines urban as “characteristic of the city as distinguished from the country.” In the same source, country means “land with farms and small towns; rural region . . . .” Now, population is “a (specified) part of the people in a given area.”

With regards to these details we are able to explain how the election was meddled with. By dividing the voting areas to give one political party a majority in as many districts as possible, this weakened the voting strength of a number of persons classed together having to do with the various races of people and the characteristics and customs of each. Also, by dividing the voting areas to give one party a majority in as many districts as possible, it also weakened a special part of the people in given areas characteristic of the city as distinguished from areas that have land with farms, small towns, and rural regions in America. This is what was given to Barack Obama: the way, method, process or actions to be able continue forty and two months.

But, let us return to this research and consider that Barack Obama, with the power arising from his status, all his contacts, and people with wealth, manipulated, fixed, and gerrymandered the election, and he did all of this to position a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies to carry out his purpose. His strategy weakened one candidate so that she wouldn't win; and positioned another to accomplish his purpose. All in all, Barack Obama positioned the current president, who is scripturally depicted as a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, so that he would be able to continue forty and two months.

These are very bold statements to make, and we have the facts to support them, with authoritative sources: dictionaries to confirm them. Let us see if the current president fits the description of a mouth.

Referenced in Collins English Dictionary, copyright 2012, on page 513, a mouth is described as "boastful, rude, or excessive talk." This definition portrays that the current president is a person who is boastful, rude, and has excessive talk. Let us define these words.

Confirmed in the Thorndike Barnhart Beginning Dictionary, copyright 1979, on page 60, boastful means "fond of boasting." Boast, the root of boasting, on the same page, is to "speak too highly of oneself or what one owns."

The current president is one who is fond of speaking too highly of himself or what he owns. He is also rude and has excessive talk. So is he rude? Does he have excessive talk?

Rude in Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 1152, is someone "discourteous or impolite, especially deliberately so; rough in manner or behavior; harsh, or ungentle; crude; raw."

We are learning scripturally, that the mouth of Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5, is the current president, who in addition to speaking too highly of himself and what he owns, is a rude person. He is discourteous and impolite; especially, in a deliberate way. His manner and behavior are rough; and he is harsh, ungentle, crude and raw when he speaks. Let us continue to look at the word rude to give more details of his character.

According to Merriam Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2009, on page 1008, to be rude is to be "offensive in action." Offensive in Collins English Dictionary, copyright 2012, on page 544, means "insulting; causing annoyance or anger; an attitude or position of aggression." And lastly, aggression is "the habit of being quarrelsome; forceful attacking behavior either constructively self-assertive and self-protective or destructively hostile to others," (referenced in Webster's New World Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 26).

These definitions further explain how rude the current president is. He insults so many people that he causes annoyance and anger by his actions, not only in America, but around the world. Even more, he has an attitude and position of being habitually quarrelsome, and possesses a forceful attacking behavior. He is either, constructively self-assertive and self-protective or destructively hostile to others. In addition to his attitude, position, and behavior being boastful and rude, he also has excessive talk.

Excessive in Webster's New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 2002, on page 495, is defined as "being too much; immoderate." In the same source, on page 713, immoderate is described as "without restraint; unreasonable." On page 1223, restraint means "control of emotion; impulses, etc." While, unreasonable, on page 1566, is "showing little sense of judgment; not rational." Another definition for unreasonable is "not governed by reason; absurd;" according to Merriam Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2009, on page 1371.

Clearly, these sources express that the mouth's, the current president's, talk is too much. His talk is without control of emotion or impulses. Also, his talk shows little sense of judgment, because it is neither rational nor governed by reason, but rather it is absurd.

By virtue of these facts, we can assert that the current president's talk is without foundation or force in fact, truth or law: it is simply not true. His talk is so logically inconsistent that it arouses and deserves ridicule. Additionally, his talk is especially laughable, because it is contrary to common sense.

What is his talk? Talk in The Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1988, on page 1340, is defined as "to spread a rumor; gossip." A rumor in Webster's Thesaurus for Students, Third Edition, copyright 2016, on page 260, is also a "report; to make a piece of information the subject of common talk without any authority or confirmation of accuracy." While gossip, on page 137, is "to discuss something, often of questionable veracity, that is better kept to oneself; blab." Now blab, on page 33, is the same as "twitter." And twitter is referenced in New Oxford American Dictionary, Third Edition, copyright 2000, on page 1871, as to "make a posting on the social networking site Twitter."

This is why the mouth's, the current president's, talk is ridiculed and what he says is considered laughable. It is because he spreads reports or pieces of information that become the subject of common talk—by all news organizations in America and the world—that are without authority or confirmation of accuracy. In fact, he discusses subject matters that are often of questionable veracity that could have been better for him to be kept to himself. But instead, he spreads these unconfirmed and inaccurate reports by posting them on the social networking site Twitter for the world to read, follow, comment, and share.

This research shows precisely, and without a doubt, that the current president of the United States, Donald John Trump, is the MOUTH of Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5. I can understand if you may have some misgivings, or be a little skeptical, that the MOUTH of Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5 is the current president, Donald Trump. I mean, the guy is an easy target. He's low hanging fruit, and it is so easy to pin stuff on him. Just look how high the ratings are going for every Late Night show whose host makes mockery of him; most especially, Saturday Night Live. All he has to do is open his MOUTH and say something.

Seriously, let us consider that these Scriptures were written thousands of years ago, so we're not making this up. The Lord, יהוה, gave John, the son of Zebedee, who wrote the book of Revelation, the perfect word to describe Donald Trump: a MOUTH.

One can only wonder if he's going to tweet about this research, since he can't control himself. Can you already see his boastful self knowing all along that he's probably in the Bible next to great leaders like Moses. But no, he's described as a MOUTH speaking great things and blasphemies. With that said, as we decode Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5, we must take into account that logically, if one part of the Scripture fits the description of Donald Trump than the rest has to as well.

Let us now understand how this mouth, Donald Trump, speaks or is speaking great things and blasphemies. In The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, under reference number 2980, speaking, in Greek, is laleo, and it says to compare 3004. Reference number 3004, in Greek, is lego and it's transliterated as "an extended or random harangue."

The mouth, who is the current President of the United States, Donald Trump, is known for his extended or random harangue. Is this true?

Extended in Webster's New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 2002, on page 503, means "prolonged; continued." On page 1187, random is something done "without careful choice, aim, plan, etc.; haphazard." On the same page, haphazard applies "to that which is done, made, or said without regard for its consequences, relevance, etc . . . ."

The transliteration of the word speaking confirms that the mouth, Donald Trump, is known for his prolonged and continued harangues. These harangues are without careful choice, aim, or plan. They're done, made, and said without regard for their consequences or relevance. So what is a harangue?

According to the Oxford Concise English Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 648, to harangue means to "criticize at length in an aggressive and hectoring manner." In Webster's New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 2002, on page 26, aggressive means "starting fights; ready and willing to take issue or engage in direct action." Hector, the root of hectoring, in the aforementioned Oxford Concise English Dictionary, on page 659, is described as "in a bullying manner." And lastly, manner, on page 867, means "a way in which something is done or happens."

This new information explains what the current president, Donald Trump, speaks or is known for speaking. He is known for criticizing anyone or anything at length. The way in which he criticizes is done, or happens, in such a way that he starts fights. In fact, he is ready and willing to take issue or engage in direct action; especially, in a bullying manner. And he does so without careful choice, aim, or even a plan. He spews out his bullying criticism without regard for its consequences or relevance.

Another definition for the word harangue, taken from the transliteration of speaking, from Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5, is referenced in The American Heritage Desk Dictionary and Thesaurus, copyright 2014, on page 348, as a “rant; a tirade.” In the same source, a tirade, on page 756, is “a long, violent, or blustering speech, usually of censure or denunciation.”

In keeping with this evidence, we can determine what the mouth, Donald Trump, is speaking. He is known for his epic rants and engaging in long, violent, or blustering speeches usually of censure or denunciation. The question becomes who are these speeches of censure or denunciation directed at?

In Webster’s New World College Dictionary, Fifth Edition, copyright 2014, Computer Software, censure means “strong disapproval; a resolution condemning a person for misconduct.” In the same source, denunciation is described as “the act of denouncing.” To denounce, the root word of denouncing, means “to announce, especially in a menacing way.” And lastly, menace, from menacing, is “a threat.”

Contingent upon these facts, we can assert that the mouth, Donald Trump, not only rants, but he also engages in long, violent, or blustering speeches strongly disapproving of specific persons. In these speeches, he talks about a resolution condemning specific people for their misconduct by announcing what he plans to do, in a threatening way. And in this very threatening manner, he speaks great things and blasphemies.

We are now going to break down great things. But, we will first deal with the noun, things and then the adjective, great.

Thing, the singular form of things, is defined in Webster's New World College Dictionary, Fifth Edition, copyright 2014, Computer Software, as "that which is to be done; act." In the same source, an act is "a decree; a document formally stating what has been done, made into law, etc." While, decree is described as "an official order, edict, or decision, as of a government, etc." And government is the same as "administration."

The long, violent, or blustering speeches that the mouth, Donald Trump, engages in, as he speaks of a resolution condemning specific people for their misconduct in a threatening way, pertains to great things. These things are that which is to be done. Specifically, official orders, edicts, or decisions, from the Trump administration, which are documents formally stating what has been done and made into law. These official orders made into law are described as great.

Great in The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, under reference number 3173, in Greek, is meGas, which is transliterated as "big." Referenced in Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, under reference number 799.11, the word big is synonymous with "outstanding." Outstanding in Webster's Thesaurus for Students, Third Edition, copyright 2016, on page 213, is the same as "striking." And striking, in The Merriam Webster's Dictionary, copyright 2016, on page 708, means "attracting attention; very noticeable; arresting."

The official orders, edicts or decisions, from the Trump administration, which are documents formally stating what has been done and made into law, attract the attention of the world, are very noticeable, and arresting.

Arresting in Oxford Concise English Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page on 75, is "the action of arresting." In the same source, arrest, the root of arresting, means to "seize (someone) by legal authority and take them into custody; stop or check (progress)." Stop in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, is "to block up (a passage) so as to make impassable; obstruct."

This is why the official orders, edicts, or decisions, from the mouth, the Trump administration attract the attention of the world. It is because it gives action to seize people by legal authority and take them into custody. It also gives action to block up or check passage to certain people to make their way impassable.

Passage in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, on page 1066, is defined as "migration." In the same source, on page 927, migrate, the root word of migration, is "to move from one place to another, especially to leave one's country and settle in another." Some synonyms for passage, in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 852, are "permission; authorization; entry, visa, immigration." Visa in the aforementioned Webster's New World College Dictionary, on page 1616, means "an endorsement on a passport, showing that a person has been granted official entry into a country." And lastly, immigration on page 727, is described as "the number of immigrants entering a country during a specified period."

In compliance with this documentation, we have proven that great things are the official orders, edits, or decisions from the Trump administration that attracts the attention of the world. This is because it gives action to seize people by legal authority and take them into custody. It also gives action to block up or check people that move from one place to another; especially, when they leave their country to settle in another, like the United States. These official orders block and check people's permission and authorization to enter the United States. It also blocks up and checks their visas, which is an endorsement on their passport showing that they have been granted official entry into the country. All in all, it blocks up and checks the number of immigrants entering the country during a specified period to make their way into the United States impassable.

Clearly, the great things that the mouth, Donald Trump, expresses in long, violent, or blustering speeches of his disapproval of certain people by providing a resolution condemning these very same people for their misconduct, in a threatening way, are the controversial executive orders that his administration has set up on immigration. Another point about the term great things is that it is in keeping with Donald Trump's slogan that he campaigned on, Make America GREAT Again.

Now that we know that great things is talking about immigration. We must understand what blasphemies is all about. So let us understand this word better as it relates to the mouth, Donald Trump.

In The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, under reference number 988, blasphemies is Greek for blasphemia and it is transliterated as a "railing; vilification (especially against God.)"

There are two different transliterations that we will decode. We will first explain a railing; and then, vilification that is especially against God. For the first transliteration of blasphemies, we can gather that what Donald Trump speaks or rants about in a bullying and threatening way is referring to a railing. To comprehend this word a little better, we will define it from its verb and noun forms.

Referenced in The American Heritage Desk Dictionary and Thesaurus, copyright 2014, on page 604, to rail, the root word of railing, means "to complain bitterly or abusively." Complain in the American Heritage College Writer's Dictionary, copyright 2013, on page 202, is "to make an accusation about something that one considers wrong." Now wrong, in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1355, is the same as a "violation."

Fixed upon these definitions, we can determine that the blasphemies the mouth, Donald Trump, expresses in long, violent, or blustering speeches, is an accusation about something that he considers a violation, of which he utters bitterly or abusively. Let us look into this violation.

In accordance with Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, a violation is an "infringement or breach, as of a law." In the same source, to infringe, the root word of infringement, is "trespass." To trespass is "to go on another's land without permission or right." A breach is the same as "infracton." And an infracton is "a breaking of the law."

These facts clarify the accusation that the mouth, Donald Trump, expresses toward people who go on another country's land without permission or right, and thus break the law. He expresses these accusations towards these people bitterly or abusively.

Bitter, the root word of bitterly, in Webster's New World College Dictionary, Third College Edition, copyright 1988, on page 143, is defined as "characterized by strong feelings of hatred, resentment." In the same source, on page 1141, resentment is "a feeling of displeasure and indignation, from a sense of being injured." To be injured, on page 696, means "to weaken or otherwise cause a loss in value to (a business)." And a business, in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 139, is the same as "job."

The manner in which the mouth, Donald Trump, expresses accusations about people who go on another country's land without permission or right is characterized by strong feelings of hatred towards them. His accusation about these people also portrays his feelings of displeasure and indignation, from the sense that they have weakened or otherwise caused a loss in the value to the country's jobs. Furthermore, he expresses these accusations abusively.

Abusive, the root word of abusively, in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, means "coarse and insulting in language; harshly scolding." Harsh, the root word of harshly, is described as "so unpleasantly crude or abrupt, as to be offensive to the mind or feelings." And to scold is "to find fault angrily."

Considering these definitions collectively, it can be logically deduced that what the current president, Donald Trump, expresses about people who go on another country's land without permission or right is coarse and insulting in language. Furthermore, he angrily finds fault in these people and what he says is so unpleasantly crude or abrupt that it is offensive to the mind or feelings of those that hear his accusations.

Now that we've explained what to rail means, from its verb rendering, let us examine what a railing is all about. Again, railing is one of the transliterations of blasphemies in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5.

A rail, from railing, in Webster's New World College Dictionary, Third College Edition, copyright 1988, on page 1109, is illustrated as "a bar of wood, metal, etc. placed horizontally between posts to serve as barrier." In the same source, on page 113, a barrier is "a thing that prevents passage; obstruction, as a wall; a customs gate on a country's border."

Accepting the veracity of all the facts gathered, we can confirm that the blasphemies that the mouth, Donald Trump, expresses in long, violent, or blustering speeches of his disapproval of certain people by providing a resolution condemning them for their misconduct, in a threatening way, is referring to a structure. This structure is in the form of a bar of wood, metal, etc. placed horizontally between posts to serve as a thing that prevents their passage into the United States. It is in fact, an obstruction, in the form of a wall or customs gate on America's borders.

During his campaign, and as president, Donald Trump has expressed the building of this wall by uttering accusations about, Mexican and Central American people, who come onto America's land without permission or right in a manner that is coarse and insulting in language. He angrily finds fault in these people and what he says about them is so unpleasantly crude or abrupt that is it offensive to the mind or feelings of those that hear his accusations.

However, his disapproval expressed in long, violent or blustering speeches is not limited to just Mexicans and Central Americans. He also attacks Muslims, Haitians, women, or even football players by providing a resolution condemning them for their misconduct in a threatening way, which leads us to the second transliteration of blasphemies which is, "vilification (especially against God)."

However, this is where we will resume with part 4 of The Beast Like Unto A Leopard.

I pray everyone has enjoyed today's seminar, and how יהוה has revealed today exactly how Barack Obama interfered with the 2016 election to let us know that the decryption is accurate. It also let us know that the dragon (the Pope), who gave the beast (Barack Obama) his power, seat, and great authority, also gave him the order to position the mouth where he is now. And only Donald Trump fits the description of a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, doesn't he? Those who sit in high places and understand prophecy clearly knew that Hilary Clinton did not fit the description of a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, but that Donald Trump was the perfect match!

The deciphering in today's seminar should be an indication of how intricately encoded the Scriptures have been preserved to be interpreted by יהוה at His appointed time. Hallelu יהוה! Hallelu בן יהוה!

Let's not forget that this study is still about the beast like unto a leopard—Barack Obama. It's just that we are dealing with an intermission here where Obama is given the way to continue by rigging the election for the mouth—Donald Trump—who is speaking (ranting) about great things (immigration) and blasphemies (the wall) as power is given to Obama to continue forty and two months.

And in part 4, our examination of Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 5, which reads in part after the semicolon:

. . . and power was given unto him (the beast like unto a leopard: Barack Obama) to continue forty and two months.

I thank יהוה and His Son, יהוה בן יהוה, for giving us wisdom, knowledge, and understanding; and for selecting us to be a part of this chosen generation to witness with our minds all that He chooses to reveal. Give all praises to the Almighty God, יהוה and His Faithful Son and Servant, יהוה בן יהוה. Praise יהוה!
Praise יהוה בן יהוה!
