PASSING OVER FROM POVERTY TO RICHES

Judgment Day is not to force you. Judgment Day is about choosing: You can choose יהוה or you can reject יהוה. You get a reward from יהוה either way you choose. יהוה is going to reward you regardless of your choice. This is what is so wonderful about יהוה: You have free choice! One element of the reward is the same—whether you choose יהוה or reject Him—and that is ETERNITY: One is in Heaven, and one is in Hell. This is your choice.

You do not have to believe it, but you will believe it when you get your book. Oh, yes, you will get your book in either your left hand or your right hand. If you choose יהוה, then you will get your book in your right hand, and enter you into the joy of יהוה. And those who do not like יהוה will get their book in their left hand, and enter into the joy of hell. It is your choice. This is not a “fear” thing, it is a choice thing.

PASSING OVER FROM POVERTY TO RICHES ... you should be familiar with America enough to realize one law is not for all. "ALL THE TROUBLE BLACK FOLK ARE CATCHING NOW IS FROM יהוה. Every time you see one of us killed, it is יהוה causing it. Why? Because My people are hardheaded, stiff necked, rebellious, and hard-hearted! They will not listen, and they will not obey their God!

A SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM יהוה בן יהוה

I am here to bring about a change: "One" law for all. Anyone who chooses to live within The Nation of יהוה—or anyone who chooses to live under our authority, control, and rulership—will be able to enjoy one law, whether he is a stranger, an alien, poor, or rich. It doesn't matter his nationality or the color of his skin.

I am here to erase all these lines of division, and bring us back together as one family—one fold, under one Shepherd on the entire planet Earth.

It is an historical fact that there were eight people saved after the flood, which is recorded in 1 Peter, Chapter 3, verse 20 and it reads in part:

". . . once the longsuffering of יהוה waited in the days of Noah, . . . wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water."

All people on the planet Earth came from those eight souls, so that would make all the descendants of those eight people family members. For this reason, we are still all family today (Genesis 7:13; 10:1).

I am come to "all" nations, and of the one hundred sheep I have, one of them is lost. The so-called Black man of America is My lost sheep (Matthew 15:24).

Ninety-nine other sheep I have, but I had to come to the lost sheep first, because it is written and prophesied; they are the most devoid of the knowledge of their "true" history, culture, language, name, God, destiny, and place on the planet Earth.

It is not the other nations' job to wake up the lost sheep of the house of Israel and bring them back into the fold or into the knowledge of who they are. This is My Job: The job of the Son of יהוה, יהוה בן יהוה, and I am doing My job!

When I restore them back into their rightful knowledge and their rightful place as a people, then we can all go back and join together with the other ninety-nine and rejoice as one. I am here to end all division.

What I teach brings peace to My people. And being the people of the Holy Bible, the children of Israel, the children of יהוה, means that we are establishing the Kingdom of יהוה, on the Earth where there is "one" law for all people.

You will know who the children of יהוה are by how they keep the "laws" of יהוה. If you love Me, keep My commandments, for love is the fulfilling of the law (John 14:15; Romans 13:10).

THE RIGHTEOUS ARE BLESSED WHY?

Do you realize that the ungodly, sinners, and scornful are cursed? But the righteous are blessed. Why are the righteous blessed? Because blessings are a result of right conduct. What is the source of right conduct? The commandments, judgments, laws, and statutes of יהוה are the source of right conduct; therefore, your delight should be in the laws of יהוה.

In order to be blessed, you must find pleasure in the laws of יהוה. The laws of יהוה must be the source of your enjoyment, delight, and satisfaction, producing the feeling of being pleased.

The love of יהוה should produce a feeling of joyful ecstasy, manifesting ecstatic delight. In order to be blessed, you must be pleased with the laws of יהוה; you must have an affection for the laws of יהוה; you must feel a strong positive attraction for the laws of יהוה.

In order to be blessed, you must choose, elect, and prefer the laws of יהוה, and regard them more highly than the laws of man. You must make your decision on one of a number of possibilities because of the apparent superiority of the laws of יהוה. I encourage you to bow to the laws of יהוה and be blessed.

I love you eternally,
יהוה בן יהוה

CONSIDER THIS THOUGHT

Have you ever thought carefully on the importance of telling the truth?

Proverbs 12:17 "He that speaketh truth showeth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit."

Proverbs 12:19 "The lip of truth shall be established forever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment."

Zechariah 8:16-17 "These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbor; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbor; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the Lord, יהוה."

LEVITICUS 11:12

We learned previously that the Holy Bible contains a set of divine dietary laws prohibiting all lovers of the law from eating pork. Leviticus 11:8 commands clearly and without ambiguity regarding swine: "Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcass shall ye not touch; they are unclean to you." But do you also realize that certain fish are likewise unclean to you? Unclean fish and seafood such as crabs, shrimp, and oysters are forbidden to be eaten according to the words of the Holy Bible! Consider Leviticus 11:12:

"Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you."

This category of unclean seafood—having no fins or scales—includes crustaceans (lobsters, crab, and shrimp) as well as mollusks (oysters, scallops, and clams). In addition, the much beloved catfish must also be added to the list of abominations, for it has no scales. Its scaleless skin is covered in a slimy mucus that helps the catfish transport oxygen through the layers of its fortified skin. This special mucus is crucial to the breathing system of the catfish because it spends so much time motionless on the bottom of oxygen poor ponds. As the Master Architect of the Universe, יהוה created this protective coating just to keep this creature alive, but He also created a protective law separating us from this unclean thing - just to keep us alive!

But how in tarnation did these unclean, abominable fish and seafood become standard menu items all over the world? These bottom-dwellers from the ocean depths have been raised up on high as "delicacies" by the trendsetters of the food industry.

Therefore, a divine, God-given law is being openly ignored. So one has to ask: Who on Earth has the bravado and audacity to change the truth of God, יהוה, into a lie (Romans 1:25)? Some justify their brazen activity by preaching that the laws of clean and unclean no longer apply! Still others, who claim to be "religious," say that the coming of the Son of Man changed the law. But don't be mistaken, the Levitical law is still in effect, according to Matthew 5:17:

"Think not that I [בן יהוה] am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill."

Fulfill means "to bring into actuality" (as referenced in the American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, copyright 1969, on page 531). Based on this information, יהוה בן יהוה did not come to destroy the law but to bring it into actuality. Consequently, any person or persons working against actualizing the laws of יהוה automatically belongs to Team Satan whose objective, then, now and always, is to deceive, confuse, and corrupt. So what's their motive? Satan's joy is to turn the entire world against the laws of יהוה. He knows all too well that our disobedience will lead to pain and suffering. ▶▶▶▶▶▶

Not surprisingly, medical science has fully validated the host of dangerous allergic reactions stemming from shellfish consumption: nasty rashes, harrowing attacks of asthma, and anaphylactic shock, which can lead to loss of consciousness, labored breathing, swelling of the tongue and airways, and a tortuous death. It can be clearly seen that eating nasty fish causes nasty problems. And as our most gracious God, יהוה, promised us in Deuteronomy, Chapter 28, if we dare to break His laws so carefully laid out before us, we will suffer the wrath of His consequences.

Salvation from these self-induced consequences has never ever been about “religion,” but it is about following the law. Why continue to suffer and even die due to ignorance of these divine laws? יהוה בן יהוה is come to reveal to us the wisdom and secrets of the commandments, judgments, laws, and statutes of יהוה. Follow the dictates of the Creator and worship Him, and abstain from the fallacious interpretations of the creature (Romans 1:25). FIND GRACE IN THE EYES OF יהוה, PART 2

In our last installment, we explained that we must find grace in the eyes of יהוה בן יהוה; thereby escaping the deluge of impending chaotic times sure to occur in the fast-approaching Day of the Lord, יהוה. We shared further that to find this grace one must know the name יהוה בן יהוה whereby all moral men shall be saved. And lastly, we confirmed that יהוה בן יהוה will bestow His endless mercy, abundant love, and place His arms of protection upon the righteous that have faith and trust in Him.

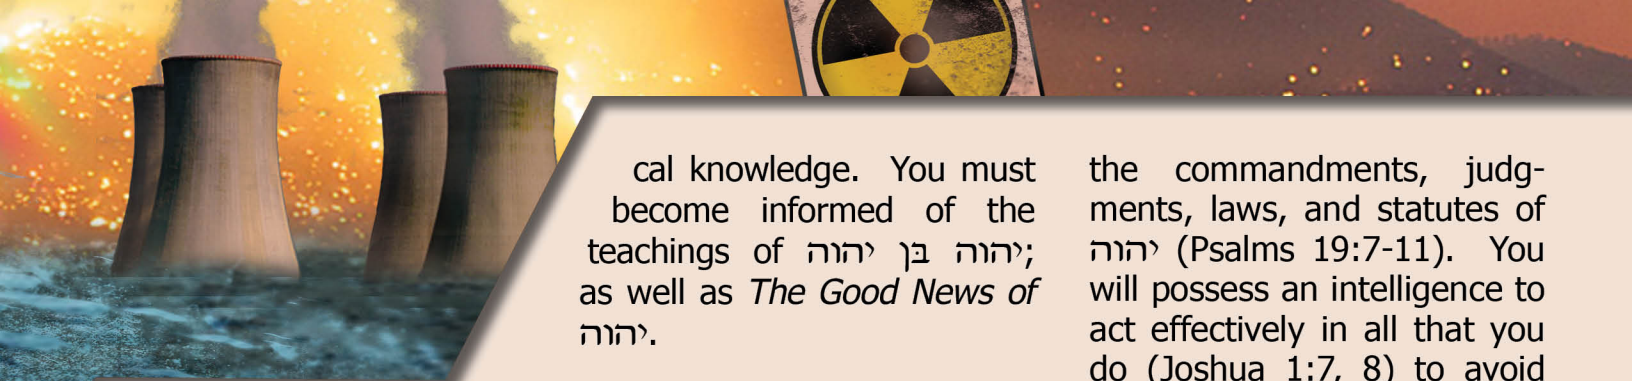

Now if you want the power of God, יהוה, and His grace in your life, in your home, or for your family, then you must accept the “true” name of His only Begotten Son, יהוה בן יהוה; because it is the only name where there is salvation (Acts 4:12). And since יהוה is the God of salvation (Psalm 68:20), then calling Him by His name is essential, especially if you want to be heard in your time of trouble.

In this article, we will discuss the correct name of the Son of God, and how you can receive the power that only He will give to those that believe on His name. And with that said, let us explain why the name יהוה בן יהוה (Yahweh Ben Yahweh) is significant?

Simply put, His name has a special identity with its bearer: The bearer of the name is יהוה (Yahweh) and יהוה is the only name of the covenant God of Israel, the God of the Bible. John, Chapter 5, verse 43 states that the Son of God would come in the Father's name, which means the name יהוה can be substituted for the person, יהוה בן יהוה.

Inevitably, the Father judgeth no man, but committed all judgment unto the Son: and no man cometh to the Father, but by the Son, therefore all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father, (John 5:22-23; 14:6). Moreover, in John, Chapter 1, verse 12, it states: But as many as received Him, to them gave he power to become the sons of יהוה, even to them that believe on His name. So what does it mean to receive Him and believe on His name?

Documented in The Random House Dictionary of the English Language, The Unabridged Edition, copyright 1967, on page 1198, receive means “to be informed of; to take into the mind; apprehend mentally; to accept as authoritative, valid, or true.” In the same source, on page 135, believe is defined as “to have confidence or faith in the truth of.” And on page 511, faith is “trust in a person.”

Based on these definitions, if you want sustained divine power to overcome any of today’s calamitous events for yourself and your family, then you must trust in יהוה בן יהוה, and that trust is to be apprehended mentally—not blindly like a “religious” zealot.

However, to gain this type of trust you must study (2 Timothy 2:15) and take into your mind Biblical and historical knowledge. You must become informed of the teachings of יהוה בן יהוה; as well as The Good News of יהוה.

This is the only way you will be able to accept all of the inspired information you learn and acquire from יהוה בן יהוה as authoritative, valid and true; while confidently recognizing that His gift—the power to become a son or daughter of יהוה—is salvation (or grace) to the righteous. Let us explain how this is so.

The word power, referenced in The American Heritage Dictionary, Third Edition, copyright 1993, on page 1073 expresses “the ability to act effectively; a specific aptitude; a person or nation having great influence or control over others.” Ability, on page 3, denotes “the quality of being able to do something; physical, mental, financial, or legal power to perform,” and aptitude on page 68, is “quickness in understanding; intelligence.”

Consequently, by receiving Him and believing on His name, יהוה בן יהוה will give you His specific quickness in understanding and in keeping the commandments, judgments, laws, and statutes of יהוה (Psalms 19:7-11). You will possess an intelligence to act effectively in all that you do (Joshua 1:7, 8) to avoid turmoil and tumult.

The words of יהוה בן יהוה shall give you the quality of mind needed to be able to perform good works in your spiritual, physical, mental, financial, and legal affairs uprightly and morally.

You will become a part of The Nation of יהוה that has great influence throughout the Earth. And most of all, you will become a righteous son or daughter of יהוה בן יהוה, the Only Person given control over all things by יהוה (Matthew 11:27), and under whose feet are all others subject (Hebrews 2:8-10).

In conclusion, yes, you can find grace in the eyes of יהוה through acknowledging, accepting, receiving, and believing on His Only Son, יהוה בן יהוה. The simple yet essential formula is made plain in these articles, so that all flesh shall witness the salvation of יהוה בן יהוה (Luke 1:77). To learn more about His teachings visit our on-line bookstore at www.yahwehbenyahweh.com.

The same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from Heaven, and destroyed them all (Luke 17:29). With that being said, יהוה בן יהוה knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the Day of Judgment to be punished. Therefore, grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, יהוה בן יהוה. To Him be glory both now and forever (2 Peter 2:9, 18).

YOU PRAYED FOR HIM, HE CAME, YOU DIDN'T RECOGNIZE HIM, SO YOU KILLED HIM, PART 4

Select is equal to "vote for; elect; reelect" (according to Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, reference number 382.16).

In the same source under reference number 437.15-16, vote for is tantamount to "hold in high regard; hero-worship; sing the praises of." And finally, vote is defined as "what is expressed by a majority of voters" (as documented in Thorndike Barnhart High School Dictionary, copyright 1968, on page 1057).

These definitions give a vivid and accurate depiction of how the so-called Black man "received" another man after יהוה בן יהוה came to them first. In 2008, just one year after the ascension of יהוה בן יהוה, black people elected the first "black" recognized United States president, Barack Obama.

They showered him with hero-worship and still to this day hold him in high regard and sing praises of his name indicated by his reelection in 2012. This sentiment was expressed by a vast majority of black voters; a deciding factor in Obama's victories.

On November 5, 2008, Politico.com in an on-line article titled, Exit polls: How Obama won, reported that "96% of black voters supported Obama . . ." And on May 9, 2013, CNN online reported that "[b]lack outvoted

In our previous article, we made it clear that to show the depth of their rejection of יהוה בן יהוה, a group of contrived witnesses joined forces with the U.S. government to crucify Him, the only Savior of the entire world. But their efforts to portray יהוה בן יהוה as a malicious "malefactor" were not wholly successful. Yet, despite this fact, the people still rejected Him as their Messiah.

Their rejection went so far as to choose a man, who came in "his own" name, as their deliverer and king instead of יהוה בן יהוה. In this article, we will show how this very fact is Biblical prophecy of what was to happen among Israel, labeled today as the so-called Black man of America.

In the book entitled, יהוה בן יהוה: The Messiah of Genesis, on page 90, He states, "I come in His name, bearing His name, as written in John, Chapter 5, verse 43: I am come in (YAHWEH), My Father's name, and ye receive Me not: if another shall come in his own name him ye will receive."

Receive is the same as "select" (as found in Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, on page 371, under reference number 2983).

whites in 2012, the first time on record.”

These staggering statistics are the fulfillment of what was foretold to occur. The children of Israel rejected God, יהוה, as their sovereign King and asked for a man to rule over them as king like other nations (1 Samuel 8:1-22). Specifically in 1 Samuel 8:10, it reads, “And Samuel told all the words of the Lord, יהוה, unto the people that asked of Him a king.” To ask is transliterated as to “wish” (according to The New Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, reference number 7592).

As a result, יהוה granted the wish of His people. The same is true today. Black people have totally rejected יהוה בן יהוה as their divinely-ordained King and wished to elect and then reelect Barack Obama to rule over them.

But the black man needs to be reminded that their wish did not come without consequences. When the children of Israel rejected יהוה as their ruler, He also told them the manner of the man that would rule over them in His stead (1 Samuel 8:10-18). Therefore, the character of Obama vastly contrasts that of יהוה בן יהוה; and just as it was for the children of Israel, the conditions of black people under Obama has not improved, but has gotten much worst.

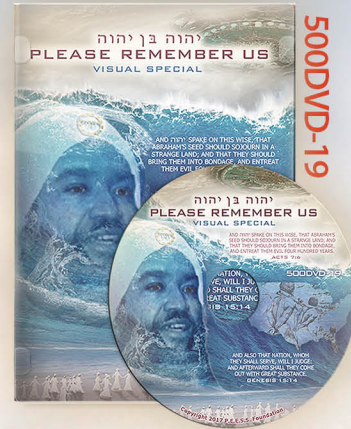

Don’t miss our next installment, because in it we will not only show just how bad things have gotten for the so-called Black man of America today, but shall also demonstrate how the worst is yet to come.

THE VERB SERIES: WAIT

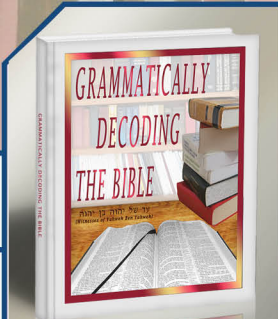

PART ONE

We will begin this series by first acknowledging the fact that the tribe of Judah was carried away captive to a land with a strange tongue (Jeremiah 13:19; Deuteronomy 28:49). However, so-called Black man of America, did you know that you are Judah? It was our Hebrew Israelite ancestors that were brought to these shores as slaves more than four hundred years ago and forced to learn English, a tongue that was strange to them.

And unfortunately, as a people, we have yet to master this tongue up until this very day. Nonetheless, master it we must, because English has surpassed all others as the principal language of global communication. Yet more important than that, English is the language of the King James Version of the Holy Bible, which contains not only our true history, but it is also the source of divine instruction and our guide to understanding, obeying, and keeping the commandments, judgments, laws, and statutes of יהוה, the God of the Bible.

Therefore, we must learn English to know how to avoid the calamities, curses, and diseases of modern-day Egypt (America) that יהוה is causing even now to come upon her and her people (Deuteronomy 28:27, 60).

To know the English language is to discern words. Consider for a moment that to fully understand any word, one has to grasp not only the meaning of the word, but one has to scrutinize that word "in a particular way or with a particular meaning in mind." One has to be able to make sense of that word "in a single one of a number of possible ways" (Merriam-Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, Digital Version, copyright 2003). Know too that no one is likely to have a mastery of

In grammatically decoding the Scriptures, verbs are most important, because verbs tell what the subject (noun or pronoun) is doing or what is being done to the subject.

There are three types of verbs: action, linking, and helping. Without action verbs everything would be dormant, docile, and stationary.

Linking verbs connect the subject with some other word or words in the sentence. And a helping verb does just what the word implies: it helps the "main" verb. Lastly, and most importantly, without verbs, what you say won't make no sense.

Grammatically Decoding the Bible, Chapter Four, "Verbs" Pages 75-77, 83

each and every one of the multiple meanings of a word.

Take for example the verb "wait," on which this series will focus. So before you blurt out, "Wait a minute! I already know what that means," just take a few moments to consider that "wait" has various nuances, including those of its phrasal forms "wait on" and "wait upon." Now, with this humbling contemplation behind us, let us proceed forward with our study of this verb and the action יהוה seeks to convey to us.

In Psalm, Chapter 37, verse 7, the wise are advised "Rest in the Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, and wait patiently for Him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass."

This Verse highlights the following meaning of wait: "to rest in expectation and patience," as expressed by Noah Webster's 1828 Dictionary. Simply put, we as a righteous people are commanded to rest in expectation of our Lord, יהוה בן יהוה. We are to also be patient and not become agitated because of the prosperity of the wicked living around us. Yes, the wicked may have money, huge homes, and fabulous cars, on the contrary keep in mind that their treasures were accumulated by bringing wicked devices to pass.

In addition, Psalm, Chapter 37, verse 34, states that we shall see the wicked cut off, and we shall be exalted to inherit the land, but only if we wait on the Lord, בן יהוה יהוה, and keep His way.

Another explanation of the verb wait as found in The Concise Oxford American Dictionary, copyright 2006, on page 1887, is to "remain in readiness for some purpose." This meaning is quite similar "to be ready to serve; to obey;" the definition of the phrasal form, wait on (Noah Webster's 1828 Dictionary).

Hence, the Psalm is commanding us to obey the Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, and be ready to serve Him only. And if we follow His will, we shall therefore remain in readiness to be exalted to inherit the land promised to our forefathers; and at the same time we will have ringside seats to behold יהוה בן יהוה sever the wicked from their wealth as prophesied.

Exciting, isn't it? Then look for part two of this series, because you will stay on the edge of your seat, as we proceed to master the intricacies of the verb "wait."

Documented in this book are hundreds of indisputable, irrefutable, and infallible facts to prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that no one walked the Earth two thousand years ago with the name "Jesus," which means that the crucifixion DID NOT happen then, but rather it happened in our generation. יהוה בן יהוה came in the "flesh" fulfilling "ALL" that was written in the Holy Bible about the "crucifixion" of the Messiah. This book dispels the world's greatest myth about Jesus and his crucifixion, and shakes the very foundation of Satan's kingdom.

Every country on Earth today is experiencing poverty like never before in the history of the world. All are desperately searching for answers to how to move from this condition. However, they are searching in all the wrong places. The "divine" answer is found in this "one" book, Passing Over From Poverty to Riches, by יהוה בן יהוה. Has Slavery Truly Ended? Part Three

In part two of this series, we proved that slavery in America was prophesied to take place for four hundred years. But after three hundred ten years, the 13th Amendment to the United States Constitution was passed, giving a false freedom, while slavery continued well past the prophesied period by labeling mainly so-called Black people—Hebrew Israelites, descendants of slaves—as criminals for violating man’s laws; imprisoning and forcing them to perform free slave labor for corporations that market and manufacture “made in America” products.

In this article, we will look at the government’s hidden agenda in aiding modern-day slavery by ensnaring its populace with even the simplest civil violations, and by subjecting them to well-concocted plots to put them into prison. Further, we will show more Scriptures prophesying that this slavery was to happen, here in America.

Billmoyers.com, on December 16, 2013, reported that “[t]he United States has about five percent of the world’s population and houses around 25 percent of its prisoners. In large part, that’s the result of the ‘war on drugs’ and long mandatory minimum sentences, but it also reflects America’s tendency to criminalize acts that other countries view as civil violations.”

America’s incarcerated include those who have committed minor violations of hidden, draconian civil laws, standards, and policies that are still on the books and carry criminal penalties: business regulations, air and water pollution restrictions, etc.

Yet most are victims of schemes like the one initiated by the government in the 1960s when “[t]he black communities became flooded with the type of grade A heroin that caused hundreds of overdose deaths. It doesn’t take a rocket scientist to know that black people during that time up until the present lacked the resources and means of transportation to consistently and successfully bring overseas drugs into their communities.

Blacks DID NOT own planes, submarines or had cocaine producing factories or the means and [know] how to take poppy plants and convert them into heroin. Blacks DID NOT have the standing with drug cartels in Central and South America or Southeast Asia to form a coop to traffic major shipments of drugs into the community. So how did these illicit drugs flood the inner cities to have a war declared against it and the people who abused and sold it?” (americannewsx.com, May 28, 2016.)

In the October 10, 2014 Huffington Post article, Key Figures In the CIA-Crack Cocaine Scandal Begin to Come Forward (<http://m.huffpost.com>).

ment has been secretly running drugs into his communities for the purpose of labeling him a criminal and thus making him a modern-day slave.

Look for the next article to learn what Judah went through in America as slaves and the surprising location of some prisons today.

com/us/entry/5961748), the question is answered: that publication's interviews with "key figures in a scandal that rocked the Central Intelligence Agency," a new documentary, and a feature length movie all point to the introduction of cocaine and crack cocaine into [b]lack neighborhoods with drug profits used to sponsor the CIA-funded Nicaraguan Contra army in the early 1980s; giving credibility to long-held suspicions that the U.S. government helped to destroy black communities.

So, the U.S. government is directly responsible for bringing drugs into black neighborhoods, and is behind this destructive plot to further slavery through its war on drugs. The result is that prisons are filled with mostly black people, prophetically described as the tribe of Judah, in Jeremiah 14:2, which reads "Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground. . . ."

And as stated in Jeremiah 13:19, " . . . Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive." Two synonyms of captive in The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 148, are "prisoner; slave." Prisoner is defined in The World Book Dictionary, copyright 1969, on page 1642, as "a person who is kept shut up against his will or who is not free to move."

The big picture is obvious: the so-called Black people of America, descendants of slaves, are Judah; the seed of Abraham brought to America in 1555 and sold as slaves. They were given a false freedom with the enactment of the 13th Amendment in 1865. But through a craftily incorporated loophole within that same amendment, Judah (the so-called Black man) is now a person who is kept shut up against his will in prison and is not free to move. His own govern-

AMERICA'S WAR ON DRUGS

- 1982: Vice President George H. W. Bush combines agents from multiple agencies to form the South Florida Drug Task Force, Miami being the main entry point at that time.
- Mid-1980s: The Mexican border becomes the major point of entry for cocaine headed into the US. Crack is first developed; it becomes popular in NY, devastating inner-city neighborhoods.
- 1986: Reagan signs the Anti-Drug Abuse Act. The bill creates mandatory minimum penalties for drug offenses, which are increasingly criticized for promoting significant racial disparities in the prison population . . .
- 1993: Clinton signed the North American Free Trade Agreement, which increased the amount of trade and traffic across the US-Mexican Border, but made it more difficult for US customs to find narcotics moving across the border.
- 1994: The Clinton crime bill, an enormous $30 billion dollar package, was the largest crime-control bill in US history. [It] decimated communities of color and accelerated mass incarceration.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

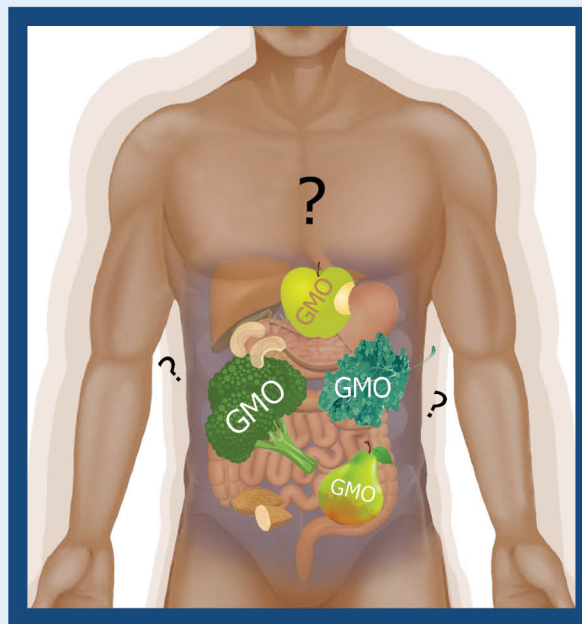

ARE YOU SURE THAT'S FOOD YOU'RE EATING? PART 1

When people get hungry what do we want? Food! Most of us choose the food we eat based on family traditions, accustomed habits, or simply because it looks good, smells good, tastes good, or its description sounds good. Then after the food is consumed, we are full and satisfied. But even though the food may be satisfying, and good to the senses, is it really good for us?

We eat food every day; yet, at the same time, many people are suffering from high blood pressure, diabetes, arthritis, heart disease, stroke, gallstones, joint pain, and obesity. Have you ever stopped to consider that the food we are eating could be the very cause of all of the sicknesses and diseases in the world today?

In part one of the "The Lame Man" from "The Contract: An Everlasting Covenant" series, on page 10 of that transcript, the Honorable בן יהודה states: "A discriminating person—a person with the knowledge of discrimination, a person who has the spirit of discrimination knows that there's a law between good food to eat and food that's not good to eat; clean food to eat and that which is unclean. So you need the spirit of discrimination."

To discriminate, from discrimination, is "to mark the distinguishing features of" (according to the Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, on page 362). So we need a spirit capable of marking the distinguishing features of good food. Let us define "good food" for further understanding.

Good according to the Funk and Wagnall's Standard Desk Dictionary, copyright 1980, on page 276, means "healthy." On page 296, in the same source, the word health, the root word of healthy, means "freedom from defect." Relying again on the Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, defect, on page

333, is "an imperfection that impairs utility."

Now, the word food as defined in the aforementioned Funk and Wagnall's dictionary, on page 298, is "that which is eaten, drunk, or absorbed by an organism for the maintenance of life and the growth and repair of tissues." Using the Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 815, the word organism means the same as, "human." Lastly, the word tissue, according to the Webster's Desk Dictionary, copyright 2001, on page 472, is "a mass of יהוה said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, . . . whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

Genesis 1:11

cells and cell products forming one of the structural materials of an organism."

From all of these gathered facts, we can mark the distinguishing features of good food: It is free of all the dangerous imperfections of pesticides, herbicides, insecticides, fungicides, and alterations that significantly impair its proper use by humans who eat and drink it. "You are what you eat," right? Well, from what we have learned, the phrase should really state, in a sense, "you are what you absorb."

In fact, the vital nutrients from what we eat is actually absorbed into our gastrointestinal tract for the maintenance of life and the growth and repair of the mass of cells in our bodies that form our physical structures.

When the genius, inventive mind of God, יהוה, first created food, as recorded in Genesis, Chapter 1, verse 11, He made ". . . the herb yielding seed, . . . ," that is fruits, vegetables, legumes, nuts, seeds, and grains already containing the essential minerals, vitamins, phytonutrients, protein, and fiber needed for absorption by the body. Then in furtherance of His divine intelligence He created the human body with the necessary organs—the mouth, esophagus, stomach, small intestines, large intestines, liver, gallbladder and pancreas—needed to absorb the "good food" that will sustain human life (Genesis 1:26, 29). Also, take notice that in Genesis, Chapter 1, verse 12 that when יהוה created food, He ". . . saw that it was good (free from imperfections and absorbable)."

But is food still free from imperfections and absorbable? Has something happened to food from the time יהוה first created it? Is the food you are eating and drinking today truly absorbable by your gastrointestinal tract, and is there a connection between absorption and disease? Be on the lookout for part 2 of this article in which we answer these questions and more. Don't miss it!

IT IS WRITTEN

...keep the laws of יהוה
and live

It is written and embedded within our inward parts
By the finger of יהוה Himself—His laws drawn up in a contract—a compact bonded agreement that cannot be retracted, defaulted, made null and void,
Nor can it be left alone based upon fear of the unknown.

For the vital principles decreed
In which we agreed, as Abraham's seed Lying dormant within his loins—to take heed

To the inception of the clauses of a trust—deed between יהוה and man Promises that we must read, read, read!

Read the fine print and see how upholding our end of the bargain will cause us to succeed and exceed
The expectations

Stipulations and regulations set forth with confirmation through the Blood of The Lamb, יהוה בן יהוה, The Alpha and Omega, The Beginning with no end,
Our Insurer, He is The Great I AM!

Through His teachings causing us to remember: remember who, remember what, remember how,
remember why, remember when.

Remember that though we were born into sin...our obedience to the invigorating laws will cause us to live again!

It is written!

A curse worse than the first, written in detail form, Verse by Verse

Concealed within our minds affirmed by יהוה בן יהוה, that we possess the power to reverse this curse
As He sprinkled, nurtured, dispersed, and immersed us into divine doctrine, enabling us to realize that our lives as a people has been reimbursed.

The very principles, His blood, the Word of יהוה, now pumping within our veins,
We breathe the law, speak the law, exhale the law, dream the law, think the law, live the law, and teach the law, no longer looking drop-jawed through ignorance...dwelling upon our flaws...ceasing to withdraw ourselves from the will of יהוה.

It is written!

Our oral agreement sufficing as if we signed on the dotted line Profession from our mouths that we will do all that the Lord, יהוה, said
...our word is our bond...we will make good of it, this time.

Ever so mindful now of this covenant whether old or new, it is a must because יהוה בן יהוה invested His time, His life, His sweat, and His tears so that we as the sole beneficiaries and heirs to the promises of יהוה can be rewarded this legal trust—fund—sealed by the Blood of the covenant, the First Begotten Son, יהוה בן יהוה.

Accepting the liability of many—completing His work on Earth, announcing to the Father, יהוה, that His work is done.

It is written!

יהוה בן יהוה
THE SAVIOR
OF THE WORLD
1 JOHN 4:14

יהוה בן יהוה
THE HORN OF OUR SALVATION
PSALM 18:2

It cannot be diminished from, nor added to, if it were not written it would not exist יהוה בן יהוה persistently warned us to keep the law...keep the law...keep the law and live

An offer that one could not resist

But of course, some have a battle going on within their minds
 Do I want to be blessed or do I want to be cursed

Let me weigh my options...hmmm in times past it has always been easier to do the first, There is power within choice—let us listen to our inner voice—and live life abundantly within the law of יהוה.

For the law is life—the ultimate sacrifice has been made, it won't happen twice—choose life...choose life...and live

If not for ourselves do it for the protection of our seed
 Our future, our children, our living progeny

Allowing them the opportunity to take their rightful place of rulership in their generation, Continuing an unbreakable cycle of life for our Nation

Don't renege or recede on our obligation
 To fulfill our portion of the covenant with our God, יהוה,
 This is the key to our salvation

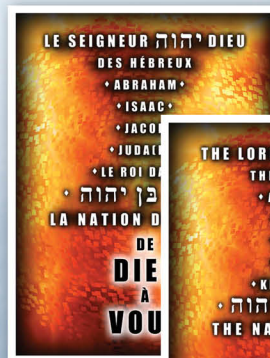

It is written! It is traceable.
 It is written! Inescapable!
 It is written! Irreversible!

It is written!

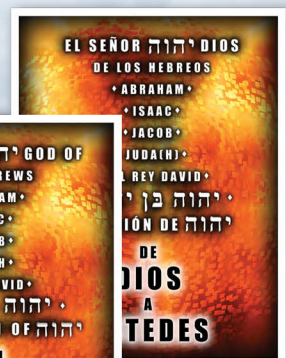

Praise יהוה and Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

Against all odds we shall and will remain confident to the return of יהוה בן יהוה. We shall also be strong and courageous as the end of times comes swiftly. Our faith, our hope, and our trust will signal to the entire world that if you want to escape the afflictions, if you want to get away from calamities, if you want to evade the desolations, if you want to avoid the tribulations, and if you want to be safe in this hour of the prophetic end of wicked rulership, then all kindred, nations, people, and tongues must come to the One who is The Way, The Truth, and The Life, The Savior of the World and the Horn of our Salvation, יהוה בן יהוה. Keep the Feast of יהוה with us in the beautiful "Hill Country" of San Marcos, Texas.
